Which Activities Landed?

Which single FIRST produced the most genuine, energized engagement this cohort? Why do you think that was?

Which single FIRST fell flattest or felt rushed? What would you change about it?

Did the structured Group Versions activities (observer roles, silent-start brainstorm, fishbowl, etc.) genuinely improve the exercises, or did any feel like unnecessary overhead?

Did Session 5's length work as a single sitting, or should it be split for future cohorts?

Emotional & Interpersonal Moments

Did any participant have a genuinely difficult emotional reaction during Session 3 (feedback/conflict)? How was it handled, and would you handle it differently next time?

Did any role-play (L35) surface real, pre-existing tension between participants? How was it resolved?

Did anyone share something during a reflection exercise that felt beyond the scope of a skills-practice session? How did you redirect, and did it work?

Content & Materials

Did you encounter any content errors or inconsistencies in the Manual, Templates, or facilitator materials?

Was the pre-work handout genuinely followed, especially around Session 3's expectation-setting?

Were the FAQ's anticipated questions the ones participants actually asked?

Format (In-Person / Online / Hybrid)

Which format did you run this cohort in?

Did the Adaptation Notes cover what you actually needed, especially for the more sensitive exercises (feedback fishbowl, conflict mediation)?

Open Feedback

What's one specific change you'd make to Stage Eight's structure, content, or materials before the next cohort?

Anything else worth flagging, especially anything related to participant wellbeing during this more emotionally demanding stage?
