Which Activities Landed?

Which single FIRST produced the most genuine, energized discussion this cohort? Why do you think that was?

Which single FIRST fell flattest or felt rushed? What would you change about it?

Did any of the group-adapted exercises (Group Versions of Key Exercises document) feel forced rather than genuinely additive?

Participants Without Formal Leadership Experience

How many participants in this cohort had little to no formal leadership experience? How did that affect their engagement with the material?

Did the FAQ and script's suggested language for this situation genuinely help, or did you need to improvise additional support?

Content & Materials

Did you encounter any content errors or inconsistencies in the Manual, Templates, or facilitator materials?

Were the leadership philosophies and development plans participants produced genuinely specific, or did many default to generic statements?

Format (In-Person / Online / Hybrid)

Which format did you run this cohort in?

Did the Adaptation Notes cover what you actually needed, especially for the fishbowl and anonymous feedback activities?

Open Feedback

What's one specific change you'd make to Stage Twelve's structure, content, or materials before the next cohort?

Anything else worth flagging?
